These women are referred by a diverse group of non-profit organizations and government agencies, including homeless shelters, immigration services, job training programs, education institutions and domestic violence shelters; self-referrals through the website are also accepted. In addition to styling, Dress for Success offers a full spectrum of workforce development (HigherHER) and career support programs. In 2019 Dress for Success Cincinnati launched a partnership with Cincinnati Works, Inc., dba Cincinnati Works, to enhance our Beyond the Suit Workforce Development programming through a shared employee and curriculum support.

Dress for Success programming was impacted significantly in 2020 by the COVID-19 public health crisis. In-person programming was suspended beginning in March. Programs that were able to operate virtually, including StyleHER, the Career Center and the Professional Women's Group continued in a reduced capacity. Programs including HigherHER and the Mobile Career Transformation Center were unable to operate virtually and were suspended during 2020.

The Career Center offers access to a professional human resources staff and volunteers, the internet, computers and printers to assist in resume preparation, job searches, effective self promotion and interview techniques.

The HigherHER program helps unemployed and underemployed clients gain career skills, utilize job search resources and build confidence because many women still need considerable coaching and support on resume writing, interviewing techniques and internet navigation before being truly ready to seek employment. HigherHER consists of individual coaching and weekly small group workshops.

The Professional Women's Group (PWG) is a unique job retention component offered exclusively by Dress for Success affiliates. Clients who obtain employment are invited to become members for life in the PWG, and through monthly meetings and special events, have access to a network of peer support, practical information and inspiration to achieve self-defined success in their careers and in life. The program is focused on financial literacy, corporate culture, health and wellness, work/life balance and leadership and civic responsibility.

The Dress for Success Cincinnati Mobile Career Transformation Center (MCTC) provides services in the community where clients can readily access them. The MCTC is housed in a custom-designed, commercial vehicle that accommodates racks of apparel and program materials. This has allowed Dress for Success Cincinnati to serve women who have difficulty reaching the downtown location.

Dress for Success Cincinnati served 412 women in 2020.
